President Francis with matron Uschi Wellmann and Sister Rauletta Maarman pictured at the handover of our R 5850 donation to provide flu vaccinations to the residents of Woodside Sanctuary. General Manager Kristen Williams said that this day symbolises health and wellness of residents. “Our residents are challenged with a number of health issues associated with their conditions. A number of them are immunocompromised. The flu vaccinations are a preventative measure to ensure their well-being.

Rotaract Outstanding Project Award winner

The Rotaract Club of Bugolobi, Uganda, launched a program to provide free health clinics, school supplies, and clean water to villagers in rural Kanabulemu. The club's 1000 Smiles project has been selected as this year's International Winner of the Rotaract Outstanding Project Award and will be honored at the Korea Convention in June.
