Our evenings

This is a really thin bulletin without a single photo. Your scribe has been away (again) and our ever-present photographer Dean is on a two-month leave-of-absence.

Laszlo and Lyn Somody are away from the 26 April to 12 July so tonight we hope to bid them bon-voyage and safe return.

Shirley Thurtell came home Tuesday after a spell in hospital and we wish her a speedy recovery and return to full health.

The 4000 odd Easter eggs collected by the Northcliff Anns (Pauline especially) have all been distributed to a number of creches and institutions in the Newclare, Newlands and Triomf areas. (Thank you Janet). Some children and senior citizens will be very happy.

Dave Woodhouse specially opened the wheelchair facility on Easter Monday to assist an out-of-town visitor desperately needing spare wheels for his wheel chair before he returned to the Eastern Cape (?) on Tuesday. He could get no help from the commercial suppliers from whom he had purchased the wheelchair.

Humour Corner

LEXOPHILIA - WHO ON EARTH DREAMS THESE UP? A lexophile of course!

Venison for dinner again? Oh deer!

How does Moses make tea? Hebrews it.

England has no kidney bank, but it does have a Liverpool.

I tried to catch some fog, but I mist

They told me I had type-A blood, but it was a Typo.

I changed my iPod's name to Titanic. It's syncing now.

Jokes about German sausage are the wurst.

I know a guy who's addicted to brake fluid, but he says he can stop any time.

I stayed up all night to see where the sun went, and then it dawned on me.

This girl said she recognized me from the vegetarian club, but I'd never met herbivore.

When chemists die, they barium.

I'm reading a book about anti-gravity. I just can't put it down.

I did a theatrical performance about puns. It was a play on words.

Why were the Indians here first? They had reservations.
